

Who I Am

Introduction:

Good evening, everyone!

Once upon a time, in a small village in Badulla, there lived a young boy with big dreams. He wasn't sure where life would take him, but he knew that each step he took brought him closer to his future. That boy, standing in front of you today, is me – Rumesch Chathuranga. I studied at Badulla Central College, with a vision of a brighter future. Fast forward a few years, and here I am today, studying Computer Science and Engineering at the University of Moratuwa.

Body:

1. What I Enjoy:

Outside of my academic life, I make time to engage in activities that I truly enjoy. I'm passionate about sports like carrom, table tennis, and badminton, which I play whenever I can. I also love to travel with my friends. And I'm a music lover too. Music plays a significant role in my life, as it helps me relax after long hours of study. Another interest of mine is trading and market analysis, which has given me a deep idea about the financial world but nowadays I'm worried that I am unable to manage it with my studies. In addition, I enjoy participating in various club activities. Being involved in clubs allows me to work together on projects, enhancing both my personal and professional growth.

2. Fun Facts About Me:

One of the things you'll quickly learn about me is I'm talking quite a bit. I love to share stories, crack jokes, and make people smile. But sometimes, my friends say it can be a bit of a headache! I'm also a bit of overthinking and oversensitive person. Before joining university, I worked at People's Bank in Badulla. And, that chapter taught me lessons that no classroom could, lessons about work, life, and how to grow as an individual. And I enjoy helping others, and sometimes it leads to some troubles too, but I love it.

3. My Goals and Outlook on Life:

My goals keep evolving, but now my focus is to do my best in everything I take on. Instead of stressing about the future, I believe no matter what happens, I always push myself to complete my work however by giving my best effort and keep moving forward. I have always dreamed of a day when I can remove financial worries from my parents. I wanted to give them a life of luxury one day. I've faced many difficulties in my journey, and it hasn't always been easy. But despite everything, I'm so proud of how far I've come.

Conclusion:

In conclusion, that's a brief overview of who I am. I look forward to growing both personally and professionally together with you. Thank you for taking the time to listen to my story today. I also wish you all the best to success in your life. Have a nice day!
